

Be an Ethics Millionaire!

The Rules

• • • • • • • • • • • • • •
2 Lifelines per Contestant
• • • • • • • • • • • • • •

Question 1

In caucus, Mediator assumes all information shared is NOT confidential unless specifically stated by the parties. Does this violate an ethical rule or confidentiality statute?

Question 2

Telephonic party's appearance at mediation previously agreed to; however, line is recorded. Other party objects when it learns that line will be recorded. Which resolution below is most appropriate under the Ethical Rules?

Question 3

“You are my mediator. I picked you and that’s how you got this conference. You need to do a better job of helping me.”
Mediator must:

Question 4

The parties tell the Mediator that they want the Mediator to provide a value range
for the dispute.

Question 5

Is the proposed Engagement Letter ethical?

Question 6

While mediating, the Mediator is asked by a party about the ramifications of having a judgment entered against him. The Mediator offers an opinion – ethical?

Question 7

Mediator selected after expiration of Court Order designating a different mediator. How to handle?

Question 8

Every third mediation is free!!!
Can you do that under the Ethics Rules?

Question 9

Must Mediator disclose former daughter-in-law's connection to one of the parties as a potential conflict of interest?

Question 10

Conflicts when lawyers change firms -- do these bar mediator or are they waivable?

Question 11

What to do when parties won't write up agreement or sign it at the mediation?

Question 12

Non-party participation in mediation. Ethical under these circumstances?

Question 13

Party complains of partiality by Mediator, then wants to withdraw the complaint and continue with the same mediator. Ethical under the Rules?